

STATE OF VERMONT

Vermont offers lodging, attractions, resorts and restaurants that provide a unique travel experience for your clients. In addition, we can provide information on virtually all tour planning needs including routes, events and property descriptions. We also cooperate with regional marketing organizations and local chambers of commerce to assist in providing detailed information to meet your specific needs.

SALES & MARKETING AIDS

- 2005 Vermont Packages Tour Manual
- Vermont Attractions Guide & Map
- Vermont Winter Guide
- Vermont Traveler's Guidebook
- Familiarization Trips
- Posters
- CD ROMs with Digital Images
- Themed Itineraries

Christiane Skinner
U.S. & Canada Travel Specialist
Vermont Department of Tourism & Marketing
6 Baldwin St, 4th Floor, Drawer 33
Montpelier, Vermont 05633-1301
Phone: 802.828.5905
Fax: 802.828.3233
Email: christiane.skinner@state.vt.us
Web: www.VermontVacation.com

Chris Fogg
Vermont Attractions Association
P.O. Box 1284
Montpelier, Vermont 05601
Phone: 802.229.4581
Fax: 802.223.4257
Email: cfogg@vtchamber.com
Web: www.vtattractions.com

Chris Fogg
Vice President of Travel and Tourism
Vermont Chamber of Commerce
P.O. Box 37
Montpelier, Vermont 05601
Phone: 802.223.3443
Fax: 802.223.4257
Email: cfogg@vtchamber.com
Web: www.vtchamber.com

WHAT'S NEW IN VERMONT FOR 2005

Rock of Ages Granite Quarries

Over the years, Rock of Ages has built a reputation as one of the premier granite manufacturers in the world. Visit its new visitor center with a new theater presentation, computer-based exhibits and a granite bowling lane located next to the manufacturing plant.

P.O. Box 482, Barre, Vermont 05641

802.476.3119

www.rockofages.com

President Calvin Coolidge State Historic Site

Plymouth Cheese Factory will reopen its doors! In addition, the Wilder horsebarn was reconstructed, offering a sheltered picnic area and increased exhibit space.

Plymouth Notch Historic District,

P.O. Box 247, Plymouth, Vermont 05056

802.672.3773

www.historicvermont.org

VINS Ecology & Raptor Center Quechee, Vermont

Visit Vermont's magnificent live raptors: owls, eagles, hawks and falcons representing the finest collection of North American raptors in New England. Adjacent to spectacular Quechee Gorge.

27023 Church Hill Road, Woodstock, Vermont 05091-9642

802.457.2779

www.vinsweb.org

Trains Around Vermont

Green Mountain Railroad's White River Flyer joined the Green Mountain Flyer and Champlain Valley Flyer to offer excursions in different parts of the state.

P.O. Box 498, 54 Depot Street, Bellows Falls, Vermont 05101

802.463.3069

www.rails-vt.com

Vermont Historical Society Museum

Following major renovations, the museum has reopened its doors with a new, expanded, permanent exhibit called "Freedom and Unity: One Ideal, Many Stories."

Administrative Office, 60 Washington Street,

Barre, Vermont 05641-4209

802.479.8500

www.vermonthistory.org

USEFUL TOOLS & WEBSITES

www.vermontvacation.com

Under the package section, you will find new ideas for motorcoaches by clicking on TOUR FRIENDLY!

Under VERMONT BY SEASON, you will find foliage information and scenic drives for fall.

Multi-lingual information is also available from our homepage.

www.vermonttourismnetwork.com

This new interactive website enables tour and motorcoach operators to create Vermont tour packages hour-by-hour, day-by-day.

www.vtchamber.com

The Vermont Chamber of Commerce provides this helpful tool for planning your stops.

www.vtattractions.org

More Vermont events and information can be found on this website.

www.historicvermont.org

State owned historic sites are listed here, along with historic roadside markers to help you with your escort notes.

www.vtfarms.org

Find Vermont farms open to the public with a list of those that are motorcoach accessible.

HEADS UP!

Quadricentennial of Samuel de Champlain's arrival to Vermont in 2009!

Planning has begun to commemorate the arrival of the first European settler in Vermont in 1609.